

SENATOR ROBAK: The giveaway wine, the giveaway wine, you're giving this away for a sample.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Not to individual off of the street, Senator.

SENATOR ROBAK: No, not off the street. But who's going to sample your wine then?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: The retailer.

SENATOR ROBAK: The retailer is going to sample it. The retailer is going to sample it?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Yes.

SENATOR ROBAK: That...that's...how...is he limited to how many he can have a day, like my amendment was, or could he just drink until the cows come home? (Laugh.)

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Yes, he would limit it, but it's...the retailer, if he's going to buy the wine to sell...(Laughter.)

SENATOR ROBAK: Pardon me, I couldn't hear that. Would you answer that. Could I have a gavel, too. I didn't hear that.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: If the retailer is going to buy this wine to sell in his establishment, he only has to have one sample to take, and that is set up by the liquor commission.

SENATOR ROBAK: That's set up by the liquor commission?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Um-huh.

SENATOR ROBAK: Okay, I'm reading your...your General File amendment. Okay. I would like to know, does the wholesaler have to be present there, because I'm looking at line 7 on your amendment. Nothing in this Nebraska Liquor Control Act shall prohibit a holder of a Class D or Class K license from allowing sampling of tax-paid wine for consumption on the premises by such licensee or his or her employees in cooperation with the licensed wholesaler in the manner prescribed by the commission. Does a wholesaler have to be present there, under this...
